 RED CROSS MONTH ***

[M11-70]

WHEREAS, for more than a century, the American Red Cross has been at the forefront of helping Americans prevent, prepare for and respond to large and small disasters. Families and communities depend on the Red Cross in times of need; yet the Red Cross depends on the support of the people of Arizona to help sustain the organization; and

WHEREAS, we honor the role of the Red Cross’ contribution to making Arizona a better place. This year we focus on the spirit of the volunteers, donors, partners and employees who support the Red Cross mission of humanitarianism; and

WHEREAS, the Arizona chapters rely on everyday heroes who donate time, blood or money; heroes who help their neighbors when their home has burned; heroes who help coordinate blood drives; heroes who teach life-saving skills such as CPR and First Aid to save the life of a friend or stranger; and

WHEREAS, in the past year alone, Red Cross volunteers from across the State have responded to 763 local disasters and provided assistance to more than 3,200 people. More than 47,000 people were trained in life-saving skills and another 45,662 were trained in water safety. Also, the Red Cross has helped keep Arizona's military families connected by relaying more than 1,794 critical messages around the world; and

WHEREAS, the Red Cross Arizona Blood Services Region serves as the bridge between nearly 48,000 generous blood donors and thousands of patients in need each year throughout the State by supplying high-quality blood products to 26 hospitals in Arizona; and

WHEREAS, compassionate and caring people who want to make a difference in Arizona and across the nation, at home and abroad, channel their support through the American Red Cross.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim the month of March 2011 as
